Where are you? What are you doing?

1949 Jim Atkinson lives with his wife Judy in Fort Worth, Texas. He is a retired personnel and labor relations director. At Smith-Cotton he was in the band, the Rhythmaires and on the yearbook staff. Jim sent a page full of accomplishments and extra personal information. This issue was too full to print all that he sent, but if friends wish to know more about him, contact the Foundation office and we'll email or mail it to you.

1951 Donald Rapp and Joyce live in China Township, MI. Donald has been retired since 1991. He recently sent a check for a lifetime membership, a monetary gift for Washington School, and funds for a scholarship fund. His support and generosity are appreciated.

1952 Bill Carpenter retired in 1989 from the U.S. Public Health Service. He lives in Gainesville, FL. He wrote to share his accomplishment of a "rededication of non-duality; that we are not separate from the earth. We are one with all beings."

1963 Donna Garrison Rehmer lives in Smithton, MO. She retired in 2004 from the Social Security Administration where she was a Technical Expert. At Smith-Cotton, she was active in sports, music (Glee Club and a song leader), and in the Spiz Club.

1965 John Own lives in Kansas City, MO. John joined as a lifetime alumni member several years ago. He retired in 2013.

1968 Rick Morrison is married to 1969 Linda Miley. They live in Parker, TX. He is an International Trade Compliance Manager for General Electric. You may remember Rick playing golf for Smith-Cotton.

1971 Mark Hewett and 1974 Chris Hunter Hewett live in Sedalia. Mark has been the Director for the Sedalia Park and Recreation Department since 1999. During his years at Smith-Cotton he was active in track and field events including the pole vault, low hurdles, long jump, and relays. He held records in each until they were broken by later Smith-Cotton students. In 1974 he was named an All-American in the pole vault for Central Missouri State in Warrensburg, now University of Central Missouri. Mark was elected Sedalia city councilman for 3 terms. In 2012, he was inducted into the University of Central Missouri Hall of Fame.

1972 Judith Ann Eshelman Siron, who lives in Celebration, FL wrote: "I am starting a Midwifery and Women's Wellness Center in my practice at Celebration OB-GYN and I mentor advanced practice nursing students and students of midwifery for several colleges across the country. My hubby, (1969) Terry, and I have three children; two living in Chesapeake, Virginia and one in NYC."

1974 Shelley Christine (Chris) Hunter Hewett is married to 1971 Mark Hewett and lives in Sedalia. She is an administrative assistant at Smith-Cotton High School. When she was in high school, she bowled, was in Spiz, and in the orchestra. She was also in New Score and musicals, kept basketball stats, and was the winter Homecoming Queen. She is proud that her family is full of Smith-Cotton graduates: her mother in 1934, husband in 1971, daughter in 1996, and son in 2002.

1976 Christy Clary Wilson-Smith is married to Charles and lives in St. Peters, MO. She is the choral director at Wentzville Middle School. Her middle school choir has grown 273% in 3 years! She is proud of that accomplishment. At Smith-Cotton she participated in choir, band, orchestra, theater, and attended Girls State.

1983 John Arnwine and wife Jennifer live in Sedalia, where he is an electrician. He participated in the choir at Smith-Cotton. His personal accomplishments include being a U.S. Navy Seabee NMCB-7, a Mason, and belonging to the Sedalia Motorcycle Association.

1983 William (Scott) Rose lives in Weston, MO. In high school he was involved in football, swimming, and track. He retired from Applied Training Solutions where he was a computer technician.
